This bill revises present law regarding disclaiming an interest in property.

PRESENT LAW

Under present law, the following persons may disclaim all or part of the property, powers or interest in property:

- (1) The donee of a gift, whether outright or in trust;
- (2) A recipient of property from a decedent's estate;
- (3) A recipient of property on the exercise of a power of appointment;
- (4) A recipient of property resulting from another person's disclaimer;
- (5) A recipient of property resulting from any other type of gratuitous transfer;
- (6) A fiduciary holding powers as a fiduciary; or
- (7) A beneficiary designated in a pay-on-death account, an insurance policy, an individual retirement account, an annuity, a retirement plan, whether qualified or not, or any other type of deferred compensation arrangement.

To be effective the disclaimer must be an irrevocable and unqualified refusal by a person to accept an interest in property or to retain fiduciary powers but only if:

- (1) The refusal is in writing. Present law details what information the writing must contain;
- (2) The writing is received by the transferor of the interest and, if the subject of the disclaimer is realty, is filed in the county register's office and, if the disclaimer involves an interest in a decedent's estate, is filed with the court in which the decedent's estate proceedings are or would be pending;
- (3) The person has not accepted the interest or any of its benefits or exercised the power; and
- (4) As a result of the refusal, the interest passes without any direction on the part of the person making the disclaimer and passes either to the spouse of the transferor or to a person other than the person making the disclaimer.

Unless the decedent has otherwise indicated by will, the interest disclaimed passes to those persons who would take under present law as if the person disclaiming had predeceased the decedent. Unless the donor of a gift or the creator of power has otherwise indicated in the document evidencing the gift or creating the power, the interest disclaimed passes to the donor or creator of the power. In every case the disclaimer relates back for all purposes to the date of death of the decedent, the date of the gift or the date of death of the donee of a power, as the case may be. If the disclaimer is of a fiduciary power, the power will either be exercisable by some other fiduciary or void.

Present law sets out in detail the actions that result in a person being barred from disclaiming property.

THIS BILL

This bill rewrites the above provisions and establishes the following in regard to disclaiming interest, which will apply to disclaimers of any interest in or power over property, whenever created.

This bill provides that a person may disclaim, in whole or part, any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment. A person may disclaim the interest or power even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to disclaim. This bill further provides that except to the extent a fiduciary's right to disclaim is expressly restricted or limited by state law or by the instrument creating the fiduciary relationship, a fiduciary may disclaim, in whole or part, any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, whether acting in a personal or representative capacity.

Under this bill, to be effective, the disclaimer must:

- (1) Be in a writing;
- (2) Declare the disclaimer, and the extent thereof;
- (3) Describe the interest or power disclaimed; and
- (4) Be signed either by the person making the disclaimer or some person subscribing the name of the person making the disclaimer, in the person's presence and by such person's express direction in the presence of two or more witnesses competent to witness a will.

This bill sets out in detail:

- (1) When a disclaimer becomes irrevocable;
- (2) When the disclaimer takes effect;
- (3) To whom the disclaimed interest passes;
- (4) Provisions governing a disclaimer by a trustee, disclaimer of power of appointment, and disclaimer of power held in fiduciary capacity;
- (5) Delivery of a disclaimer, including, specifically, to whom the disclaimer must be delivered (which varies depending on the type of interest);
- (6) When disclaimer is barred or limited. For example, a disclaimer is barred by a written waiver of the right to disclaim or if the disclaimant accepts the interest sought to be disclaimed; and
- (7) The recording of a disclaimer. With limited exception, failure to file, record, or register the disclaimer does not affect its validity as between the disclaimant and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the disclaimer.

This bill also revises and adds to present law provisions governing guardianships and conservatorships and the Uniform Trust Code, as follows:

- (1) This bill adds that in a proceeding to determine letters of guardianship or conservatorship, the court is vested with the authority to direct any fund or part of the fund decreed to belong to a minor or person with a disability, or in which there is recovery in favor of a minor or person with a disability, into a trust created under the Tennessee Uniform Trust Code with such fiduciary appointed upon order of the court;
- (2) Present law provides that a fiduciary is limited in its investments to the investments permitted by the present law. This bill specifies that this provision does not apply if estate funds or property is transferred to a trust created pursuant to the Tennessee Uniform Trust Code;
- (3) This bill adds that if funds are transferred to a trust, the fiduciary and trust protector are relieved of requirements under present law where trust assets, investments, and their financial nature require public disclosure or filing upon public record;
- (4) This bill revises the present law provisions under the Uniform Trust Code in regard to when a charitable organization or the attorney general is treated as a qualified beneficiary;
- (5) This bill adds under the Uniform Trust Code that if the trustee resigns, is removed, or dies or upon the termination of the trust, a qualified beneficiary or the successor trustee may petition the court to require the trustee or the trustee's personal representative to appear before the court for a final accounting. Alternatively, the trustee or the trustee's personal representative may petition the court to approve a final accounting relieving the trustee from liability for the period covered by the final accounting, if the qualified beneficiaries have refused to otherwise release the trustee within 30 days or cannot be reasonably located to request such release. The settlement period begins from the acceptance of the trusteeship by the trustee or the end of the period covered by the last accounting. This bill sets out in detail information to be included in the petition and other provisions governing such a situation;
- (6) This bill adds that a provision in a trust requiring the arbitration of disputes, other than disputes of the validity of all or a part of a trust between or among the beneficiaries and a fiduciary under the trust, or any combination of such person or entities, is enforceable;

(7) This bill revises the provisions governing: representation by a holder of a power of appointment; and modification or termination of noncharitable irrevocable trust by consent;

(8) This bill adds provisions excluding certain entities from the provisions of TCA Title 45 governing banks and financial institutions. Under this bill, a corporation or limited liability company excluded from title 45 if:

(A) The entity is established for the exclusive purpose of acting as a trust protector or trust advisor, or any combination of such purposes;

(B) The entity is acting in such capacity under the terms of a trust under which a Tennessee trust company, a Tennessee bank with trust powers, or a national bank with trust powers and with a physical presence in this state is serving as a trustee;

(C) The entity is not engaged in trust company business as a private trust company or with the general public as a public trust company;

(D) The entity does not hold itself out as being in the business of acting as a fiduciary for hire as either a public or private trust company;

(E) The entity files an annual report with the secretary of state and provides a copy to the department of financial institutions;

(F) The entity agrees to be subject to examination by the department at the discretion of the commissioner; and

(G) The entity does not use the word "trust" or "trustee" in the entity's name in any manner.

This bill sets out in detail other provisions governing such exempt special purposes entities.

ON APRIL 22, 2019, THE HOUSE ADOPTED AMENDMENTS #1 AND #2 AND PASSED HOUSE BILL 676, AS AMENDED.

AMENDMENT #1 revises various provisions of this bill, including the following:

(1) Removes this bill's requirement that a disclaimer be filed with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative;

(2) Revises this bill's provisions described above in the bill summary under THIS BILL, in the second item (5), to instead add under the Uniform Trust Code that if the trustee resigns, is removed, or upon the full or partial termination of the trust, a qualified beneficiary or successor trustee may petition the court to require the trustee transferring or distributing the trust to appear before the court for a final accounting. However, a successor trustee will not have any obligation to petition the court to require the final accounting. The trustee transferring or distributing the trust may also petition the court to approve a final accounting relieving the trustee from liability for the period of its administration. This amendment also revises the final accounting period to begin from the latest of: the date of acceptance of the trusteeship by the trustee; or the end of the period since an accounting was last approved by the court;

(3) Removes this bill's provision that would have added that a provision in a trust requiring the arbitration of disputes, other than disputes of the validity of all or a part of a trust between or among the beneficiaries and a fiduciary under the trust, or any combination of such person or entities, is enforceable;

(4) Adds that prior to delivering the trust property within the trustee's possession to the co-trustee, successor trustee, or other person entitled to it, a trustee who has resigned or been removed will have the right and authority to petition the court for approval of its accountings and a release and discharge from all liability related to such trust as allowed under this bill;

(5) Deletes the present law provision whereby a release by a beneficiary of a trustee from liability for breach of trust is invalid to the extent: it was induced by improper conduct of the trustee; or the beneficiary, at the time of the release, did not know of the beneficiary's rights or of the material facts relating to the breach. This amendment instead provides that a qualified beneficiary or trustee may petition the court for a final accounting covering a resigning or removed trustee's period of administration or the period since an accounting was last approved by the court as allowed under this bill;

(6) Adds that no beneficiary, trustee, trust advisor, or trust protector may commence a proceeding against a trustee or former trustee for any matter covered by a final accounting approved by the court under this bill; and

(7) Clarifies the exemption of special purpose entities under this bill from present law governing banks and revises various provisions of this bill regarding such special purpose entities, such as requiring that the entity agree to pay the department the actual expenses of the examination required under this bill.

AMENDMENT #2 removes the provision that states that a disclaimer made under this bill is not a transfer, assignment, or release.

~~(f) A disclaimer made under this chapter is not a transfer, assignment, or release.~~

31-7-106. Disclaimer of interests in property.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Future interest" means an interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment, if at all, later than the time of its creation; and

(2) "Time of distribution" means the time when a disclaimed interest would have taken effect in possession or enjoyment.

(b) Except for a disclaimer governed by § 31-7-107 or § 31-7-108, the following rules apply to a disclaimer of an interest in property:

(1) The disclaimer takes effect as of the time the instrument creating the interest becomes irrevocable, or, if the interest arose under the law of intestate succession, as of the time of the intestate's death;

(2) The disclaimed interest passes according to any provision in the instrument creating the interest providing for the disposition of the interest, should it be disclaimed, or of disclaimed interests in general;

(3) If the instrument does not contain a provision described in subdivision (b)(2), the following rules apply:

(A) If the disclaimant is not an individual, the disclaimed interest passes as if the disclaimant did not exist;

(B) If the disclaimant is an individual, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (3)(C) and (3)(D), the disclaimed interest passes as if the disclaimant had died immediately before the time of distribution;

(C) If by law or under the instrument, the descendants of the disclaimant would share in the disclaimed interest by any method of representation had the disclaimant died immediately before the time of distribution, the disclaimed interest passes only to the descendants of the disclaimant who survive the time of distribution; and

(D) If the disclaimed interest would pass to the disclaimant's estate had the disclaimant died before the time of distribution, the disclaimed interest instead passes per stirpes to the descendants of the disclaimant who survive the time of distribution. If no descendant of the disclaimant survives the time of distribution, the disclaimed interest passes to those persons, including the state but excluding the disclaimant, and in such shares as would succeed to the transferor's intestate estate under the intestate succession law of the transferor's domicile had the transferor died at the time of distribution; and

(4) Upon the disclaimer of a preceding interest, a future interest held by a person other than the disclaimant takes effect as if the disclaimant had died or ceased to exist immediately before the time of distribution, but a future interest held by the disclaimant is not accelerated in possession or enjoyment.

31-7-107. Disclaimer of rights of survivorship in jointly held property.

(a) Upon the death of a holder of jointly held property, a surviving holder may disclaim, in whole or part, the greater of:

(1) A fractional share of the property determined by dividing the number one (1) by the number of joint holders alive immediately before the death of the holder to whose death the disclaimer relates; or

(2) All of the property except that part of the value of the entire interest attributable to the contribution furnished by the disclaimant.

(b) A disclaimer under subsection (a) takes effect as of the death of the holder of jointly held property to whose death the disclaimer relates.

(c) An interest in jointly held property disclaimed by a surviving holder of the property passes as if the disclaimant predeceased the holder to whose death the disclaimer relates.

31-7-108. Disclaimer of interest by trustee.

If a trustee disclaims an interest in property that otherwise would have become trust property, the interest does not become trust property.

31-7-109. Disclaimer of power of appointment not held in a fiduciary capacity or other power not held in a fiduciary capacity.

If a holder disclaims a power of appointment not held in a fiduciary capacity or other power not held in a fiduciary capacity, the following rules apply:

(1) If the holder has not exercised the power, the disclaimer takes effect as of the time the instrument creating the power becomes irrevocable;

(2) If the holder has exercised the power and the disclaimer is of a power other than a presently exercisable general power of appointment, the disclaimer takes effect immediately after the last exercise of the power; and

(3) The instrument creating the power is construed as if the power expired when the disclaimer became effective.

31-7-110. Disclaimer by appointee, object, or taker in default of exercise of power of appointment.

(a) A disclaimer of an interest in property by an appointee of a power of appointment takes effect as of the time the instrument by which the holder exercises the power becomes irrevocable.

(b) A disclaimer of an interest in property by a permissible appointee or taker in default of an exercise of a power of appointment takes effect as of the time the instrument creating the power becomes irrevocable.

31-7-111. Disclaimer of power held in fiduciary capacity.

(a) If a fiduciary disclaims a power held in a fiduciary capacity which has not been exercised, the disclaimer takes effect as of the time the instrument creating the power becomes irrevocable.

(b) If a fiduciary disclaims a power held in a fiduciary capacity which has been exercised, the disclaimer takes effect immediately after the last exercise of the power.

(c) A disclaimer under this section is effective as to another fiduciary if the disclaimer so provides and the fiduciary disclaiming has the authority to bind the estate, trust, or other person for whom the fiduciary is acting.

31-7-112. Delivery or filing.

(a) As used in this section, "beneficiary designation" means an instrument, other than an instrument creating a trust, naming the beneficiary of:

- (1) An annuity or insurance policy;
- (2) An account with a designation for payment on death;
- (3) A security registered in beneficiary form;
- (4) A pension, profit-sharing, retirement, or other employment-related benefit plan; or
- (5) Any other nonprobate transfer at death.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c)(1), delivery of a disclaimer may be affected by personal delivery, first-class mail, or any other method likely to result in its receipt.

(c) In the case of an interest created under the law of intestate succession or an interest created by will, other than an interest in a testamentary trust:

(1) A disclaimer must be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(2) If no personal representative is then serving, the disclaimer must be filed with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative.

(d) In the case of an interest in a testamentary trust:

(1) A disclaimer must be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, the disclaimer must be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(3) If no trustee is then serving and no personal representative is then serving, the disclaimer must be filed with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust.

(e) In the case of an interest in an inter vivos trust:

(1) A disclaimer must be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, the disclaimer must be filed with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust; or

(3) If the disclaimer is made before the time the instrument creating the trust becomes irrevocable, the disclaimer must be delivered to the settlor of a revocable trust or the transferor of the interest.

(f) In the case of an interest created by a beneficiary designation that is disclaimed before the designation becomes irrevocable, the disclaimer must be delivered to the person making the beneficiary designation.

(g) In the case of an interest created by a beneficiary designation which is disclaimed after the designation becomes irrevocable:

(1) The disclaimer of an interest in personal property must be delivered to the person obligated to distribute the interest; and

(2) The disclaimer of an interest in real property must be recorded in the office of the county register's office of the county where the real property that is the subject of the disclaimer is located.

(h) In the case of a disclaimer by a surviving holder of jointly held property, the disclaimer must be delivered to the person to whom the disclaimed interest passes.

(i) In the case of a disclaimer by an object or taker in default of exercise of a power of appointment at any time after the power was created, the disclaimer must be delivered to:

(A) The holder of the power; and

(B) The fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power; provided, however, if no fiduciary is then serving, the disclaimer must be filed with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary.

(j) In the case of a disclaimer by an appointee of a nonfiduciary power of appointment, the disclaimer must be delivered to:

(A) The holder or personal representative of the holder's estate; and

(B) The fiduciary under the instrument that created the power; provided, however, that if no fiduciary is then serving, the disclaimer must be filed with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary.

(k) In the case of a disclaimer by a fiduciary of a power over a trust or estate, the disclaimer must be delivered as provided in subsection (c), (d), or (e), as if the power disclaimed were an interest in property.

(l) In the case of a disclaimer of a power by an agent, the disclaimer must be delivered to the principal or the principal's representative.

31-7-113. When disclaimer barred or limited.

(a) A disclaimer is barred by a written waiver of the right to disclaim.

(b) A disclaimer of an interest in property is barred if any of the following events occur before the disclaimer becomes effective:

(1) The disclaimant accepts the interest sought to be disclaimed;

(2) The disclaimant voluntarily assigns, conveys, encumbers, pledges, or transfers the interest sought to be disclaimed or contracts to do so; or

(3) A judicial sale of the interest sought to be disclaimed occurs.

(c) A disclaimer, in whole or part, of the future exercise of a power held in a fiduciary capacity is not barred by its previous exercise.

(d) Unless the power is exercisable in favor of the disclaimant, a disclaimer, in whole or part, of the future exercise of a power not held in a fiduciary capacity is not barred by its previous exercise.

(e) A disclaimer is barred or limited if so provided by law other than this chapter.

(f) A disclaimer of a power over property which is barred by this section is ineffective. A disclaimer of an interest in property which is barred by this section takes effect as a transfer of the interest disclaimed to the persons who would have taken the interest under this chapter had the disclaimer not been barred.

31-7-114. Tax qualified customer.

(a) Notwithstanding this chapter, if as a result of a disclaimer or transfer the disclaimed or transferred interest is treated pursuant to title 26 of the United States code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the disclaimant, then the disclaimer or transfer is effective as a disclaimer under this chapter.

(b) Tax qualified disclaimers must comply with the rules set forth in 26 U.S.C. § 2518, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, including the nine-month time limitation set forth under 26 U.S.C. § 2518(b)(2).

31-7-115. Recording of disclaimer.

If an instrument transferring an interest in or power over property subject to a disclaimer is required or permitted by law to be filed, recorded, or registered, the disclaimer may be so filed, recorded, or registered. Except as otherwise provided in § 31-7-112(g)(2), failure to file, record, or register the disclaimer does not affect its validity as between the disclaimant and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the disclaimer.

31-7-116. Application to existing relationships.

Except as otherwise provided in § 31-7-113, an interest in or power over property existing on the effective date of this chapter as to which the time for delivering or filing a disclaimer under law superseded by this chapter has not expired may be disclaimed after the effective date of this chapter.

31-7-117. Severability clause.

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 34-1-101(7), is amended by deleting the subdivision in its entirety and substituting the following:

"Fiduciary" means a guardian, coguardian, conservator, co-conservator, or qualified trustee as defined in § 35-16-102(12)(A);

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 34-1-104(a), is amended by deleting the language "subsections (b) and (c)" and substituting instead "subsections (b)-(d)".

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 34-1-104, is amended by adding the following language as a new subsection:

(d) In a proceeding to determine letters of guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall be vested with the authority to direct any fund or part of the fund decreed to belong to a minor or person with a disability, or in which there is recovery in favor of a minor or person with a disability, into a trust created under the Tennessee Uniform Trust Code, compiled in title 35, chapter 15 with such fiduciary appointed upon order of the court according to this chapter.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 34-1-115(a), is amended by deleting the first sentence in the subsection and substituting the following:

A fiduciary is limited in its investments to the investments permitted by title 35, chapter 3 unless estate funds or property, or both, are transferred to a trust created pursuant to the Tennessee Uniform Trust Code, compiled in title 35, chapter 15.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 34-1-115, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection:

( ) If funds are transferred to a trust as referenced in § 34-1-115(a), the fiduciary and trust protector are relieved of requirements under title 34 where trust assets, investments, and their financial nature require public disclosure or filing upon public record. A certification of trust outlined under § 35-15-1013 may be filed with the clerk of the court to show such trust is created. Such trust must be governed and administered by a qualified trustee as permitted by title 35. Further, the court clerk with personal jurisdiction over the person with a disability or minor must be named trust protector of said trust with powers prescribed by §§ 35-15-1201 - 35-15-1206.

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-15-110, is amended by deleting the section and substituting the following:

(a) A charitable organization expressly designated to receive distributions under the terms of a charitable trust has the rights of a qualified beneficiary under this chapter, if the charitable organization, on the date the charitable organization's qualification is being determined, would be a qualified beneficiary under this chapter if such charitable organization were an individual beneficiary.

(b) The attorney general and reporter has the rights of a qualified beneficiary with respect to a charitable trust having its principal place of administration in this state if all of the interests in the trust that are for a charitable purpose, in the aggregate, on the date the attorney general and reporter's qualification is being determined, would cause an individual beneficiary to be a qualified beneficiary under this chapter if all of such interests were for the benefit of an individual beneficiary instead of for charitable purposes.

SECTION 9. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 35, Chapter 15, Part 2, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated section:

(a) If the trustee resigns, is removed, or upon the full or partial termination of the trust, a qualified beneficiary or successor trustee may petition the court to require the trustee transferring or distributing the trust to appear before the court for a final accounting. However, a successor trustee shall not have any obligation to petition the court to require the final accounting. The trustee transferring or distributing the trust may also petition the court to approve a final accounting relieving the trustee from liability for the period of its administration. The final accounting period shall begin from the latest of:

- (1) The date of acceptance of the trusteeship by the trustee; or
- (2) The end of the period since an accounting was last approved by the court.

(b) The petition shall set forth:

- (1) The name and address of the trustee;

(2) The qualified beneficiaries of the trust; and

(3) The period that the accounting covers.

(c) The petition shall be served on each qualified beneficiary or their representative under part 3 of this chapter to the extent there is no material conflict of interest or on the trustee.

(d) Upon review of the trustee's final accounting and after considering any objections thereto and any evidence presented, the court may approve the final accounting or enter judgment granting appropriate relief. If no objection to the petition is filed within the time allowed by law after service, or if the parties consent, the petition may be approved without notice, hearing, or further proceedings. The final judgment of the court shall be binding on all parties.

(e) Upon approval of the petition, the trustee shall be relieved from liability for the period covered by the final accounting.

(f) Costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees of the trustee, shall be taxed against the trust, unless otherwise directed by the court.

SECTION 10. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 35-15-707, is amended by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated subsection:

(b) A provision in a trust instrument requiring the arbitration of disputes relating to the validity of a trust is enforceable if all interested parties with regard to the dispute consent to the arbitration of the dispute.

(1) To the extent there is no material conflict of interest between the holder of a power of appointment and the persons represented with respect to the particular question or dispute, the holder may represent and bind persons whose interests, as permissible appointees, takers in default, or otherwise, are subject to the power. Notwithstanding this section to the contrary, the holder of any general power of appointment may, regardless of whether there is a material conflict of interest between the holder of such general power of appointment and the persons represented with respect to the particular question or dispute, represent and bind persons whose interests, as permissible appointees, takers in default, or otherwise, are subject to such power.

(2) As used in this section, "general power of appointment" means a power, regardless of when exercisable, to appoint in favor of any one (1) or more of the following: such power holder, such power holder's creditors, such power holder's estate, and the creditors of the estate of such power holder.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) to the contrary, if the holder, under the terms of the governing instrument, may only exercise such general power of appointment with the consent of another person, then the written consent of such other person is required in order for the holder of the general power of appointment to represent and bind persons whose interests, as permissible appointees, takers in default, or otherwise, are subject to the power.

(a) During the settlor's lifetime, a noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified or terminated by the trustee upon consent of all qualified beneficiaries, even if the modification or termination is inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust if the settlor does not object to the proposed modification or termination. The trustee shall notify the settlor of the proposed modification or termination not less than sixty (60) days before initiating the modification or termination. The notice of modification or termination must include:

(1) An explanation of the reasons for the proposed modification or termination;

(2) The date on which the proposed modification or termination is anticipated to occur; and

(3) The date, not less than sixty (60) days after the giving of the notice, by which the settlor must notify the trustee of an objection to the proposed modification or termination.

(b) Following the settlor's death, a noncharitable irrevocable trust may be terminated upon consent of all of the qualified beneficiaries if the court concludes that continuance of the trust is not necessary to achieve any material purpose of the trust.

(c) Following the settlor's death, a noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified upon the unanimous agreement of the trustee and all qualified beneficiaries as provided under § 35-15-111 if such modification does not violate a material purpose of the trust. Additionally, a noncharitable irrevocable trust may be modified upon consent of all of the qualified beneficiaries if the court concludes that modification is not inconsistent with a material purpose of the trust.

(d) Modification of a trust as authorized in this section is not prohibited by a spendthrift clause or by a provision in the trust instrument that prohibits amendment or revocation of the trust.

(e) An agreement to modify a trust as authorized by this section is binding on a beneficiary whose interest is represented by another person under part 3 of this chapter.

(f) Upon termination of a trust under subsection (a) or (b), the trustee shall distribute the trust property as agreed by the qualified beneficiaries.

(g) If not all of the qualified beneficiaries consent to a proposed modification or termination of the trust under subsection (a), (b), or (c), as applicable, the modification or termination may be approved by the court if the court is satisfied that:

(1) If all of the qualified beneficiaries had consented, the trust could have been modified or terminated under this section; and

(2) The interests of a qualified beneficiary who does not consent will be adequately protected.

(h) As used in this section, "noncharitable irrevocable trust" refers to a trust that is not revocable by the settlor with respect to which:

(1) No federal or state income, gift, estate, or inheritance tax charitable deduction was allowed upon transfers to the trust; and

(2) The value of all interests in the trust owned by charitable organizations does not exceed five percent (5%) of the value of the trust.

(i) Notwithstanding subsection (a), (b), or (c), the trustee may seek court approval of a modification or termination.
